Choice by Larisa Okhutna, Svitlovodsk, Ukraine

Lesson’s Author:
Christine Braun-Sarasota County Schools
Reflections of Liberty
by Harley Haas,
10th Grade, Sarasota High School

Flags show where we come from; actions show who we are. - Seth Morano, 11th Grade, Sarasota, Florida Invitation to the Conversation
by Zach Timmons,
11th Grade,
Booker High School,
Sarasota, Florida

Speaking about things with no action is like a dull pencil; there is no point. - Kelsey Taylor, 12th Grade, Sarasota, Florida
Life is more important than a swipe, text, or notification on your phone. - Madeline Boyd, 7th Grade, Bradenton, Florida
Everyone can see my scars, but no one can see my pain. – Amber Stringer, 8th Grade, Bradenton, Florida

Reach Out by Megan Mohrmann, 9th Grader- Sarasota, Florida
Shopping
by Micheal Levin,
Lexington,
Kentucky

Just listen to my story and we won't be that different anymore.
- Cristina Rosian,
Medias, Romania
A Duet is Often Better than a Solo by Mackenzie Reiss, Venice, Florida (2015)

Don't judge my CHOICES without understanding my reasons. - Emily Casey, North Port, Florida (2015)
We don't need a perfect world, we need an understanding society.
– Donna Mae Galaez, Iloilo, Philippines
For more information on EOD click the links below:

Questions or Comments-christine.braun@sarasotacountyschools.net