Let it Grow by Tatiana Gaskin, 11th Grade, Booker High School

Lesson's Author:
Christine Braun-Sarasota County Schools
Books are like people, if you judge them by their cover you may never know their story – Mia Amdur, 5th Grade, Out-of-Door Academy, Sarasota, Florida
A person is a book in the great library of the world; and like every book, they wait to be judged by their inside and not by their cover –
Teodora Rinciog,
Ploiesti, Romania
We are not responsible for the wrongs done by our ancestors; we are responsible for making sure that history does not repeat itself – Irene Nicola, Sarasota, Florida
A circle isn’t any better than a square. Don’t let shape define you. – Taylor Reister, 12th Grade, Booker High School

Pressure by Lindsay Weaver, 12th Grader - Bradenton, Florida “Ramon”
by Cinthia Baseler,
Manchester, United Kingdom

A single drop of kindness can change someone’s day. - Sally Koscho, Sarasota Middle School
An open eye, sees. An open mind, understands. An open heart, accepts. – Trishia Guevana, Antipolo, Philippines
Blood for Life by Ade Milhad, Jakarta Barat, Indonesia

A big heart makes a big life – Ojingiri Hannah, Nigeria
For more information on EOD click the links below:

Questions or Comments-christine.braun@sarasotacountyschools.net