

Arts events for Sarasota-Manatee: March 4-10

Jay Handelman

Diana Simon's art work 'Love is Love' from the Embracing Our Differences exhibition will be displayed during Baltimore Orioles spring training games at Ed Smith Stadium. PROVIDED BY EMBRACING OUR DIFFERENCES

Orioles bat for artistic diversity

Baseball fans at Ed Smith Stadium will find a little something extra when they attend Spring Training games this season. Six pieces of art from the 2021 Embracing Our Differences exhibition on the Sarasota Bayfront will be on display in the stadium. Embracing Our Differences features large scale works of art that speak to diversity and are matched with quotes submitted from around the world. The works featured at the stadium are “Diversity Fingerprint,” “Small Struggles,” “The Time is Now,” “Love is Love,” “Play Together,” and “Sezer’s Diary.” The stadium display is up through March 28 while the full Embracing Our Differences exhibition continues through April 1. For more information: embracingourdifferences.org

Jay Handelman, arts editor and theater critic, has been an editor and writer at the Sarasota Herald-Tribune since 1984. Read more of his arts and entertainment stories. And please support local journalism by subscribing to the Herald-Tribune.